Attempt to Be Made to Effect Settlement of Difficulties.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Texarkana, Ark., March 21.-The "Landmark" Baptist Association, which met here yesterday, finished its work and adjourned to-day until November 22, when it will reconvene here.

Will reconvene here.

Before adjournment it adopted a strong declaration of principles, and elected a committee consisting of J. K. P. Williams and W. Lee Lackey, Texas; R. M. Bogard and J. B. Robbins, Arkansas, and J. T. Tucker of Missouri, to attend the Southern Baptist Convention which convenes at Kansas City next May for the purpose of negotiating a peaceable settlement of differences existing between the two factions.

Should such a settlement be effected, the "Landmarkers" will disband at their next meeting, but should they fail to secure certain concessions the schism will be made permanent.
At to-day's session J. R. Sellman of Texarkana was elected treasurer of the asso-ciation. Elder Solt M. Jureidina was chosen missionary to Jerusalem, and I. N. Yohannan missionary to Persa.

On January M he is said to have at-saulted Frank Leslie, a commercial trav-eier. The assault was committed in Les-lie's apartments at the Granville Hotel in St. Loois, where Williams was employed as a waiter. Williams was arrested on a description fornished by the St. Louis police, which read: "He is timid and unacomstomed to Northern ways, as he has always lived in the South." Williams took his hat off to the police when arrested.

If Teamsters Carry Out Threat to Strike April 1, Employers Say They Will Be Prepared for Trouble.

The associated team owners of St. Louis are preparing to meet the threatened general teamsters' strike on April 1. Reprecentatives of practically every branch of the teaming interests of the city met yes-terday to outline a plan of compaign for mutual protection.

This meeting was brought about by the action of the Teamsters' Union at a meeting held by the joint council at Druids' Hall, March 16, when it was resolved that in case the demands of the union were not acceded to by April 1, a strike of all union teamsters should be called. In sev-union teamsters should be called. In several instances no demands had been made, but the unions resolved that in case the contemplated demands were not acceded to this strike should be called.

The team owners resulting that concepted action was necessary to meet this move of the union, appointed an Executive Committee to act for their joint interests, and those present immediately subscribed a fund aggregating nearly 198,000 for the preliminary expenses of meeting the strike. It was unanimously resolved to stand together and in case a strike is called in any particular harn, then the other team owners would undertake to do the work of the company or the individual affected.

In all of these imsents 70 per cent goes to labor, while 15 to 18 per cent goes to raw material. This 70 per cent means that the laboring men of St. Louis will be benefited to the extent of more than $6,000,000. This addition to the ordinary work will insure plenty of employment to the members of the various labor organizations, whether or not times are good in general. If the bonds are not voted, the workingmen will have to depend upon the natural growth of the city, which will necessarily be less than if the bonds are voted.

Phillips has been working as a driver for the Union Facking Company for more than a year and went out with the other drivers when their wages were cut. He says the shooting was unprovoked and that he had nothing with which to defend himself when Jeans drew a revolver.

The men met at the Williams foundry where Phillips say Jeans loading from pipe in a wagon belonging to the Union Packing Company. Phillips mays he asked Jeans if he had gone back to work and on being told that he had, remonstrated with him for deserting the union.

Phillips says Jeans replied that he had a wife to support and could not afford to remain idie. A quarrel followed in which Phillips claims Jeans struck him. He says he struck back and then Jeans drew a revolver from his inside coat pocket.

As soon as Phillips saw the weapon he jumped behind a telephone pole and threw up his hands, saying: "Don't shoot for heaven's sake." He says Jeans fired and he fell to the ground. Jeans then got on his wagon and drove to the packing-house at the foot of Bremen avenue, where he was arrested.

Mrs. Cornella Walker, who lives across the street from the Williams foundry, was the only witness to the shooting. She says Phillips was behind a telephone pole with his hands up when the shooting was in self-defense. He says Phillips meaning him in the face with his first.
